

DIVORCE PACKET INFORMATION FAMILY PRO SE PROGRAM

The following packets of forms are available for pro se litigants seeking a divorce. Please read the brief facts below each title to help determine which one meets your needs.

NOTE: In all cases, you must be a Florida resident for a minimum of six months before you can file for a divorce in Florida.

SIMPLIFIED DIVORCE: (ALL OF THESE CONDITIONS MUST BE SATISFIED!)

1. You have no minor children of the marriage, AND you are not pregnant.
2. You and your spouse agree about the division of your property and debt.
3. Both you and your spouse will appear for the final hearing.

DIVORCE WITH CHILDREN: You have minor children of the marriage. You have not yet agreed about filing for a divorce, child custody, support, or visitation, and/or how to divide your property and debt. A SUMMONS is provided, you must know where your spouse lives or works in order to have a summons served. If you do not know where your spouse can be located, a NOTICE OF ACTION which is provided, for this divorce will be published in the local Newspaper.

DIVORCE WITHOUT CHILDREN: You have no minor children of the marriage. You have not yet agreed to file for divorce and/or how to divide your property and debt. A SUMMONS is provided, you must know where your spouse lives or works in order to have a summons served. If you do not know where your spouse can be located, a NOTICE OF ACTION, which is provided, for this divorce will be published in the local Newspaper.